- Participate or have the patient's representative participate in the development of, or decisions concerning, treatment;
- Participate or refuse to participate in research or experimental treatment;
- Receive assistance from a family member, the patient's representative, or other individual in understanding, protecting, or exercising the patient's rights;
- Be treated with dignity, respect, and consideration;
- Not be subjected to abuse, neglect, exploitation, coercion, manipulation, sexual abuse, sexual assault or except as allowed in R9-10-1012(B), restraint or seclusion;
- Not be subjected to retaliation for submitting a complaint to the Department or another entity;
- Not be subjected to misappropriation of personal and private property by any clinic personnel member, employee, volunteer, or student;
- Consent to or refuse treatment, except in an emergency and to refuse or withdraw consent for treatment before treatment is initiated;
- Be informed of alternatives to medications or surgical procedure and associated risks and possible complications of medications or surgical procedure, except in an emergency;
- Be informed of the clinic's policy on health care directives, and the patient complaint process;
- Consent to photographs before a patient is photographed, except that a patient may be photographed for identification and administrative purposes;
- Provide written consent to the release of information in the patient's medical records or financial records, except as otherwise permitted by law.

Patients Have the Responsibility To:

- Be honest about matters that relate to you as a patient.
- Provide staff with accurate and complete information about present complaints, past illnesses, hospitalizations, medications, and other matters pertaining to your health.
- Report any perceived risks in your care.
- Report any unexpected changes in your condition to those responsible for your care and welfare.
- Follow the care, service, or treatment plan developed.
- Ask any questions when you do not understand or have concerns about your plan of care.
- Understand the consequences of the treatment alternatives and not following your plan of care.
- Know the staff who are caring for you.
- Be considerate and respectful of the rights of both fellow patients and staff.
- Honor the confidentiality and privacy of other patients.
- Be considerate of the property of The Pain Experts of Arizona.
- Assure the financial obligations of your healthcare are fulfilled as promptly as possible.
